

Glenn Grabiec

Glenn Grabiec is a Certified Sommelier through the Court of Master Sommelier and owner of Wine Party Pros, a company that conducts educational seminars for private, retail and corporate events. Over the past decade, he has been a judge at the Pacific Rim International Wine Competition and the San Joaquin Valley Wine Competition. His judging vocation was launched many years ago when he was a finalist in the California Wine Tasting Championship. In 2003, he placed first in a competition for local wine enthusiasts to become judges for the Pacific Rim International Wine Competition.

Over the years, Glenn's personal experience of visiting tasting rooms in an effort to learn more about wine made him realize the importance of accessible wine education. His efforts are primarily concentrated on providing a good foundation to those new to the love of wine with an emphasis on appreciation for the winemaker's talents.
